

The Hospices de Beaune Wine Auction Week with Hidden France

November 14-19, 2012

Some of the Week's Excitement:

- Relax in Beaune's newest luxury boutique "Hotel Particulier" located in the center of Beaune, where we will be the only guests.
- Enjoy 3 exclusive visits to some of the Cote d'Or's finest wineries: Maison Alex Gambal in Beaune, Domaine Lafarge in Volnay and Domaine Comte Georges de Vogue in Chambolle-Musigny.
- Taste the 2012 vintage out of barrel at the Cuvierie of the Hospices de Beaune with our host Alex Gambal followed by a comparison tasting at Maison Gambal.
- Take part in the Palais de Congres tasting of the 2011 vintage with Alex Gambal (all of the villages in the Cote d'Or will be represented) OR spend your morning exploring Beaune's famous open air market.
- Dine in the area's finest restaurants.
- Be Alex Gambal and Diana Williams' dinner guests at their home atop the cliffs of Orches - only 20 minutes from Beaune.

- Visit the Hospices de Beaune - the world's first charity hospital, that has been open every day since receiving its first patient in 1443.
- Enjoy Burgundy specialties inside the church at Place Ziem prior to seeing what's happening just steps away at the Hospices Auction.

*If you/your group decide to buy a barrel(s) of Hospices wine after tasting the barrels on Friday afternoon, Alex Gambal has agreed to do the "elevage" in his winery in the center of Beaune.
